Featured Producer: Joh. Jos. Prüm - Mosel, Germany

Founded in 1911 and rooted in more than 400 years of family history in Wehlen, Joh. Jos. Prüm stands as one of the Mosel's most revered Riesling producers. The estate is celebrated for crafting wines of delicacy, racy acidity, and remarkable longevity, a style shaped notably by Sebastian Prüm in the mid-20th century and continued today by Dr. Manfred and Dr. Katharina Prüm.

Prüm's holdings include some of the Mosel's most prestigious vineyards, especially Wehlener Sonnenuhr and Graacher Himmelreich, where steep slate slopes and a high proportion of ungrafted vines yield wines of striking purity and minerality. Whether a light, precise Kabinett or a sumptuous Auslese, each wine reflects the estate's commitment to finesse and balance.

Featured Producer: Château Léoville Barton - Saint-Julien, Bordeaux

Château Léoville Barton is situated in the heart of Saint-Julien and produces some of Bordeaux's most prized wines. The 2ème Cru Classé property has been owned by the Barton family since 1826. There are 50 hectares of vineyards which sit on gravelly-clay soils. The vines are planted to 77% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Merlot, and 3% Cabernet Franc - a blend that delivers structure, depth, and great ageing potential. Léoville Barton develops beautifully over time and with a decade or more in bottle, it reveals the hallmark cedar and graphite notes of St-Julien, alongside intense blackcurrant and cassis fruit. La Réserve de Léoville Barton is made from the younger fruit of the estate and is designed for earlier drinking.
